State Charges Gambling Rampant In Contra Costa

By POLITICUS

When George W. Griffin, chief special agent for Attorney General Fred Howser, said, and we quote "Contra Costa County is loaded with slot machines..." Griffin made an "erroneous statement," says Inspector Norman Wilson of the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Department.

"I've been here on this type of work for 15 years," Wilson said. "We've conducted all kinds of raids, knocking out roulette wheels, blackjack games... real gambling set-ups. If Griffin and high authorities want to really do some good, why don't they go after the school situation."

A BEDLAM OF DOPE

Wilson took a breath... "Our schools are a bedlam of dope, marijuana, obscene literature..."

"And besides, we don't have enough men and time to go around and watch for every console type slot machine make a pay-off."

POLITICAL EYEWASH

Wilson took a breath... "Such statements (Griffin's) are political eyewash."

And the raids promised by Griffin, who said, "My men have attended every celebration held there recently (Contra Costa County, of course) and we have been making a quiet study of the whole county." The raids... "No, there have been no raids," Wilson said, "What is there here for him to raid?"

Alleging Contra Costa County officials were lax in policing slot machine violations, George W. Griffin, chief special agent for Attorney General Fred Howser, has promised constant raids with "plenty of action to be expected in the next few months."

Stating that recent weekend raids staged in this county and Mendocino County are "just the beginning," Griffin said, "We are going to hit slot machines wherever we find them, and we intend to follow the same procedure."

When criticized by officials of both Contra Costa and Mendocino Counties for his failure to arrest operators allegedly found making pay-offs, Griffin countered with pointed remarks on the way slot machine cases are handled in some places.

Group Asks to be In Local Fire Dist.

Circulation of petitions designed to withdraw lands southeast of Orinda Crossroads from the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District and place them within the Orinda Fire District boundaries were in process of completion this week.

Affected lands include Moraga Meadows, Moraga Highlands, Tara Brook, Moraga Gardens and a portion of the Moraga Company lands, in the area between the Crossroads and Glorietta Boulevard sector.

The circulation of petitions is sponsored by Moraga Meadows Association, a newly formed improvement group. Various committees have been delegated to work on tract plans and restrictions, welcoming of new residents and other civic activities.

Officers of the Association are: Dr. Herbert Wise, president; Abe Doty, vice-president; Mrs. A. H. Ayres, secretary; Thomas Mica, treasurer; and directors Mrs. Jean Bettencourt, Frank Shirey and Roy Nicolaysen.

'City With Foundation.'

Community church Topic

Speaking next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock on "A City with Foundation," Rev. Fred Morrow will conduct the worship service of Orinda Community Church. Choir director Mary Elizabeth Tomme will lead from the console of the organ, in the absence of Mrs. Baker on her vacation. The Sunday school meets between the hours of 9:30 and 10:30, and high school young people hold their Fellowship at 7 o'clock Sunday evening.

Dr. Sidney H. Buckham of Berkeley is to be the speaker at the Orinda Church Night supper at the Community Church next Wednesday evening, at 6:15. With Jim Hupp as chairman and song leader, an informal welcome will be given to new members. A report of building plans is to be rendered to the congregation. The meal is "pot luck," and reservations will be received by Mrs. Seim, Orinda 5521.

THE FIRE WHICH COMPLETELY DESTROYED the $30,000 home of Miss Katherine Bennett, 64 Charles Hill Road, is shown in its final stages as Lafayette and Orinda firemen battle to keep the flames from spreading. The home was unoccupied when fire broke out early Thursday morning of last week. Only things "saved" from the blackened ruins were "four or five towels... slightly scorched." Orindan Heads Commuters Group; Want More Buses, Less Overcrowding

"Adequate service at reasonable rates, and safety on the highway for all" became the goals of the Contra Costa Commuters Association at a general meeting held Tuesday evening in the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

The association, now some 300 strong, which started in June of this year, and represents all commuters in the central Contra Costa County area, agreed on a permanent organization and elected officers for the coming year.

OFFICERS NAMED

The new officers, Emmitt M. Samon, George C. Tonkin, Edward F. Klick, Ed C. Nevins, John H. Menzies, Frank W. Brigham, Donald J. Silliman, Kenneth S. Spoon, Irving C. Roemer, John E. McKirahan, Robert H. Pulford, Edward H. Moore, Weldon F. Williams, Conrad E. Wingefeld and

Charles L. Barber, will comprise a board of directors who will select from among themselves a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer within the next two weeks.

Emmitt M. Samon of Orinda told of the successful attempt to provide an additional bus schedule, morning and evening, on the San Francisco run last June, and the present need for even more service.

NEED MORE SCHEDULES

The need for additional service to Oakland and Berkeley was brought up, as was also a request for Key Route service connecting with Greyhound stops in Berkeley and Oakland to the Emeryville and Berkeley industrial districts to which there is now no public transportation service from central Contra Costa County. Directors plan to appoint a committee to negotiate with Key Route, Greyhound and, when necessary, the California Public Utilities Commission, which holds regulatory powers over public carriers.

A recent slight decline in the cost of one way and round trip bus fares, which were given a sharp raise in June, was noted. While at present there is no indication of a proposed increase in monthly commute fares, such as has occurred on other local transit systems, the situation will be watched closely, Association officers declared.

MORE PROBLEMS

Overcrowding of buses was discussed, with the promise that action will be taken. The problem of frequent stops at too close intervals, which cause excessive delay to buses, was pointed out. Directors promised to investigate all inquiries received and to take whatever action is found possible.

A membership committee will be appointed and a drive to increase the number of members started. Anyone wishing to join may send his application, giving name, address and telephone number to the Contra Costa Commuters Association at Route 3, Box 28, Lafayette. The amount of dues was set at 50c for the coming year.

Scout Fund Drive

Results Being Tabulated

As the Diablo Area Scout fund campaign begins its final stage, co-treasurers John Fry, Lafayette, and John Stoffel, Orinda, are busy tallying and checking currency, coins and checks contributed to meet Girl and Boy Scouting 1950 budget needs.

Late donations are being received by them for Diablo Area Scouts care of American Trust Company in both Orinda and Walnut Creek banking offices.

Laborer Killed In Orinda Sewer Trench Cave-In

One man was killed and another narrowly escaped yesterday, when a 20 foot section of a ditch being dug as a part of Orinda's sewer project caved in and buried Henry McHenry, a laborer working for Underground Construction Company, contractors doing sewerage installation in Orinda. McHenry lived with a brother at 33 Willard Avenue, Richmond.

The cave-in occurred in a section of the project located on Water Company property behind Bradley's Market and Crossroads Restaurant. McHenry and Ray Perry, working nearby, were cleaning the ditch preparatory to laying pipe. The reportedly unshored ditch, about 14 feet deep and 3 feet wide at the point of the cave-in, suddenly gave way and buried McHenry alive. Perry escaped uninjured but McHenry remained buried for an estimated 45 minutes before fellow workers recovered the body beneath the pile of loose shale.

A brother of the victim, Jacob McHenry, was working on the same project about a mile away on Moraga Highway. The entire job shut down while the men worked frantically digging in the pile of loose shale at the cave-in.

Dr. Joseph Vizzard of Lafayette answered the emergency call but McHenry was declared dead upon recovery. The Orinda Fire Department stood by with a resuscitator but it was not used, according to a spokesman for the department.

This is the third such death due to cave-ins in the Contra Costa Central Sanitary District. One man died when a sewer trench being dug on Lafayette Grammar School grounds caved in and a laborer died in a similar accident on a project on St. Mary's Road.

Rotary Has Busy Schedule; Get New Members

Jay Bedsworth kept the undivided attention of Orinda Rotary members at the luncheon meeting Wednesday when he presented one of his popular magic programs.

Two new members, Ron Anderson and Bill Duncan, joined the service club this week making the total membership of Orinda Rotary total 23.

Harvey Lyons, unable to attend his own club, Oakland Rotary, because of an ankle injury suffered last week, kept intact his record of 23 years of Rotary without absence by attending the Orinda meeting. He was welcomed as a guest.

The barbecue dinner at Carroll's Ranch last week, at which wives of Rotary were honored guests, was reported a great success. Keene Pettigill and Ron Anderson received special commendation for the barbecued steaks.

Robert M. Davis, attorney on the board of governors of the San Francisco Council for Civic Unity will be on next week's program, according to Vic Beauchamp, publicity. Davis will speak on what is being done to create unity among various racial groups.

Dr. Hoecker Accepts Professorship in East

Dr. W. H. Hoecker has accepted a professorship at Texas A. & M. University, where he will engage in research and instruct classes in the Dairy Division. His address is College Station, Texas. Dr. Hoecker was with the Golden State Company here for several years. Mrs. Hoecker and the three children, Wayne, Burdett and Kay, are waiting to dispose of the family home at 19 El Verano before joining him.

Bring Bestest Dogs To Black's Dog Show

Black's grand "Remodeling Reopening," scheduled for October 22, will feature a Pard Dog Show sponsored by Swift & Company. Prizes and awards have been planned for the shortest, longest, tallest, ugliest, prettiest, and the bestest dogs entered in the contest. Persons wishing to enter their canines in the contest are urged to contact Jack or Chet Clark.

Father Duffy Questions Denial of Release Time

"Orinda schools are the only schools in Contra Costa County, besides San Pablo Schools on double sessions, which do not allow release time for religious education," stated the Rev. Albert T. Duffy when questioned concerning last week's announcement made by the Orinda School District Board of Trustees who refused to grant Santa Maria Church's request for "release time."

Father Duffy, pastor of the Santa Maria Catholic Church in Orinda, was granted a similar request last year. The Board declared that last year's decision to refuse "release time" had been waived because "arrangements had already been made for nuns to come to Orinda to give religious instruction."

FIRST FLAT DENIAL

Father Duffy denied any such arrangements had been made and said that this year's decision by the Board was the first flat denial of a release time request ever made by Orinda Trustees. "No reason" had been given for last year's granting of his request, Father Duffy said.

"Oakland schools allow 'release time,' with 30 percent of all the school children there taking part in the religious classes, according to reports from school officials," Father Duffy added.

PERIOD TOO SHORT

No request has been made this year by the Community Church, the Rev. Fred R. Morrow said, because he considered "the 25 minutes or so of time" in which actual teaching could be done, of too short a period for constructive teaching.

Morrow also declared that the inconvenience caused by rearranging school programs to fit "release time" classes was a factor influencing his decision not to apply for "release time."

The decision granting school boards the authority to grant or deny "release time" is a "permissive decision" granted by the school code, Superintendent of Schools Joseph Sheaff said.

Mothers' Club Business Meeting Set for Tuesday

Orinda Mothers' Club will hold its first business meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon at Orinda Grammar School Auditorium, at 1:30 p.m. There will be a musical program. All mothers of Orinda and Glorietta School children are urged to attend. There will be a book award given to the class having the most mothers in attendance.

Hostesses will be mothers of Orinda School 4th grade, Mrs. J. L. Gompertz, room mother, and 4th and 5th grades combined, Mrs. Jack Moylan, room mother. Refreshments will be served.

Child care will be provided at the Children's Unit of Orinda Community Church during the hours of the meeting. A fee of 35c per child will be charged.

Frank Isola, Orinda School physical education teacher, will be at the Orinda School grounds from 3 o'clock on to supervise play of boys and girls, grades two to eight.

Schedule More Room Meetings

Room meetings continue with the following scheduled for today and next week. Mothers with children in these classes are urged to attend, according to Mrs. Roger Stark, Mothers' Club hospitality chairman.

Friday, October 14, Mrs. Paula Collings combined 3rd and 4th grades at Glorietta School, at the home of Mrs. N. S. Dodge, room mother, Irvine Drive, at 3:00 p.m.

Monday, October 17, Miss Patricia Caswell's 3rd grade at Orinda School, at the home of Mrs. Clay Sorricks, room mother, 10 Hacienda Road, 3:00 p.m.

Wednesday, October 19, Mrs. Verna Givens' 6th grade at Orinda School, at the home of Mrs. Joseph L. Sheaff, room mother, 147 Camino Don Miguel, at 3:00 p.m.

Thursday, October 20, Mrs. Tuulie Martilla's morning kindergarten at Orinda School, Mrs. R. J. Pedder, room mother, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Coburn, 1 Hacienda Circle, Orinda Estates, at 3:00 p.m.

Friday, October 21, Mrs. Agnes Gilman's 4th grade at Orinda School, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Gompertz, room mother, 1 Hacienda Road, at 3:00 p.m.; Miss Frances Davison's 1st grade at Orinda School, at the home of Mrs. Paul Oakley, room mother, 3 El Gavilan Court, at 9:30 a.m.

Last week's room meetings were well attended and the discussion of problems relating to the different classes have proved very helpful.

12-15 Club Plans Dessert Bridge

The Orinda 12-15 Club will hold a card party Thursday, October 20, at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. William Joslin, 611 Miner Ave., Orinda.

The party is a dessert bridge but canasta will also be played.

Tickets are on sale by Mrs. Kenneth Anderson of the Warren Harrold Real Estate office in Orinda. General chairman for the affair is Mrs. Leo Alexander, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Chapel and Mrs. Anderson. Mrs. Harry Doten is in charge of decorations.

Anyone wishing to bring their own tables of players should contact Mrs. Anderson, Orinda 2894.

35 Mile Zones Set By New Ordinance

Orinda has another ordinance fixing the speed of vehicles "on certain county roads," but this time it's here to stay.

A previous ordinance passed January 24, 1949, limiting speeds on portions of Orinda's roads was declared "not in effect" because of a section in the State Vehicle Code, prohibiting the Board of Supervisors from reducing speed limits set by the State. But the State Legislature recently passed a bill "clarifying the situation" thus enabling supervisors to limit speeds on county roads.

IN "30 DAYS"

The present ordinance calls for the following speed limits to be in effect November 9 (30 days after the date of its adoption date, October 10):

35 miles per hour along Moraga Highway from Glorietta Boulevard to the State Highway and along the Orinda Highway from the State Highway at the Crossroads to Manzanita Drive.

35 miles per hour along San Pablo Creek Road from the State Highway to Manzanita Drive.

35 miles per hour along Camino Diablo from its intersection with Pine Hollow County Road to a point "southeasterly" to be indicated by traffic signs.

PENALTIES FOR VIOLATORS

Violations of the above speed limits carries misdemeanor charges with a $500 top fine or a maximum of 6 months in county jail or — both.

Nursery School Plans Expansion

Orinda Nursery school will meet on Monday at the Community Church to discuss organization of another session of the Orinda Co-operative Nursery school.

Increased enrollment and the growing waiting list makes the extra classes necessary, according to Mrs. Robert Spott of the Nursery School group. Mrs. Jean Henderson, one of the organizers of the School, will be on hand at Monday's meeting to aid in organizing the proposed session.

Hey! We've Got A Ball Team

Orinda has a baseball team to root for... and we don't mean the Oaks or the Seals or the rest of THOSE teams.

We mean a bang-up hard slugging outfit called Orinda Merchants Baseball Team who are out to do-or-die in the Berkeley hardball league. So far the fellows have been trying to get organized and play ball at the same time... and dropped their first two games. One to East Side Merchants and one to Wiseman's Appliances of Berkeley. But they've got 12 more games to go in which to redeem themselves.

Next scheduled game is with Fairway Stores and the battle ground is Kenny Park, Berkeley, 2:30 on Sunday. Merchants are sponsoring an individual player with a $20 donation to help cover expenses.

If you want to back a player, contact any of the following team members: William Caudle, outfielder; James McCone, manager and first baseman; Jack Clark, pitcher; Chet Clark, second base; Fred Navone, infielder; Bill Duncan, catcher and outfielder.

For Better Fire Protection

(AN EDITORIAL)

Last week we witnessed a tragic fire on Charles Hill where the home of Miss Katherine Bennett was completely demolished. The Lafayette Fire Department, which covers Charles Hill as well as a vast area through to Walnut Creek, did everything possible. In addition to three of their trucks, they called in one each from Orinda and Walnut Creek.

Lack of water did hamper the fire fighting, as the nearest hydrant was about 1200 feet away. However, the house was beyond saving even before the trucks arrived.

Financing of sufficient hydrants is a tremendous problem for both the Orinda and Lafayette fire districts, since both cover such a large area with homes so far apart. It is well to note that every year more and more hydrants are installed.

But there is one improvement that can be made now. Residents of Charles Hill, as well as those in Happy Valley and Hidden Valley, are in Lafayette Fire District but they have Orinda telephone numbers. To insure them the fastest telephone service to the Lafayette Fire station, an Orinda phone line should be installed by the Lafayette Fire District. This could possibly save valuable seconds, if not a minute or two at certain times of the day when all operator lines are busy.

Last year the Lafayette Department installed a Walnut Creek phone to serve the many homes with Walnut Creek phone numbers.

Since this precedent has already been established, we respectfully urge that the same protection be given the hundreds of homes in the Lafayette Fire District that have Orinda phones.

Captain Sandford Sez:

Just outside the Sun office I encountered two little guys. They were heavily armed and seemed to be really alert and ready for any kind of trouble that might arise. I felt tremendously flattered when one of them looked me square in the eye and said out of the corner of his mouth, "Are you the sheriff?"

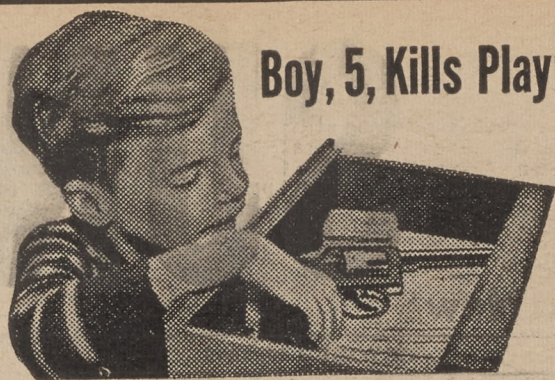

I just muttered, "No," and kept on going, expecting every moment to be called upon to turn and throw up my hands. Anyhow I escaped and I am still not dead yet.

IT SEEMS HARDLY NECESSARY to draw attention to the fact that there are several deep gullies on the highway, for example, at the corner of Hough Avenue. These are often full of muddy water, and buses and automobiles pulling in quickly splash water and mud over persons on the sidewalk. Some fine day somebody will undoubtedly do something about it. If eventually, why not now?

And parking a Greyhound Bus is something really quite different from parking a baby buggy.

THE SCOUT DRIVE NOW ON should command the careful attention and wholehearted support of every red-blooded American. I was somewhat astonished when a lady told me she was not interested because her children had passed the scouting age. I wonder how many hundreds of persons have given unstintingly of their time and money to the Scout Movement, who never even had any children. We must all try to learn to pull together for the good of all mankind.

ONE OF THESE FINE DAYS soon I'm going to throw an attractive fly over some raffle I know well, just to see what happens. Isn't it strange to think of a decrepid, spavined old Scotsman wading up to the armpits in a dangerous river, tossing a bunch of colored feathers hopefully into the most likely looking places.

Location of J. C. Under Consideration

The Contra Costa Junior College District board made its first provision for temporary college quarters at Richmond in the city's old library building.

This action opened the eyes of Southern Contra Costans to the fight they face with Richmond for equal treatment in campus location.

URGES CONSIDERATION

Queried on the trustees' action, O. J. Wohlegemuth, board member for this end of the county, urged area residents to insist on equal consideration. He said, "Richmond has proceeded from the beginning on the assumption that it would have a college as soon as it was possible for the board to establish one."

"And in my opinion it should. However, we also have as much population as Richmond, although it is dispersed over a wider area. And the early studies by the committee which made the original recommendation showed there must be several campuses established. There must be two campuses specified at the same time if the bond issues are to be passed and the people satisfied," Wohlegemuth continued.

"People of this area will not be satisfied if the district proposes to establish one campus, first and wait for another."

STUDY VOTE

Residents of this section of the county pointed out last week that the voting which established the district had far more support in the southern portion of the county, with the exception of Orinda, than in Richmond.

With three men from their area on the five-man board, it is reported the Richmond people assume they will have first attention in obtaining classrooms.

The Southern Contra Costa area residents have been waiting for results of student population surveys which it was originally announced would determine the campus locations. According to the district's own announcement, surveys show the number of county high school students interested in junior college is equally divided between the two areas.

NEED TWO CAMPUSES

Since backers of a college for this area would not approve establishment of a Richmond college only, it has been pointed out that unless a bond issue contains provision for two campuses, it will not receive the needed two-thirds majority for passage. It was explained that one college in either end of the county would defeat the purpose, since junior colleges are intended to provide college facilities without traveling great distances.

The junior college term started last week with evening classes meeting from 7 to 9 p.m. at Camp Stoneman. Each class meets one night a week, and Superintendent McCunn said other courses would be arranged if there is enough demand. Spanish, U. S. History, Russian, English, Psychology, Political Science, Economics and College Algebra are scheduled so far.

Acalanes School Library Expands

Miss Ruth Fletcher, Acalanes school librarian, announced that 274 freshmen completed an intensive two week course last Friday studying techniques for using the library. The orientation course is given each year to freshmen and seniors and represents an important feature of the school curriculum, Miss Fletcher said.

Two hundred new books were added to the library early this week. The new books, coupled with volumes already on hand and numerous donations of books by residents of the community, will push the number of volumes in the library to well over 6,000.

Miss Fletcher is anxiously awaiting completion of the new library wing, which will include a library room and an adjacent classroom for affiliated studies.

School Superintendent Attends Conference

W. B. Ellis, superintendent of Lafayette School District, attended a conference of public ended Friday of last week. Educational problems in all their phases were scheduled to be the topics of discussion during the various sessions planned for school officials.

Orinda Dorcas Society, Haidee Inn Made Sun News Nine Years Ago

Care to go along with me on another short hike back down the trail? Let's see if we can pick up any of the signs, somewhat blurred by time and the elements.

NINE YEARS AGO the Orinda Dorcas Society of Women's Guild of Orinda Community Church met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Sisson. It was their first meeting of the year. Mrs. E. D. Casterline, Mrs. Sisson's mother, acted as co-hostess for the day.

See where Miss Vesta Stevenson, an employee at Haidee's Inn in Lafayette modeled for Kahn's in September of 1940. Vesta had participated in "last years" (1939) fall fashion show sponsored by Vogue.

And along about the same spot on the trail, see where Haidee's Inn was sold by its owners, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hodapp. They had operated the Inn for a couple of years but sold out to Anna Conquergod and Gladys Morgan of Concord. Henry and Haidee Hodapp left Lafayette to "live near Orinda where Henry operates a barber shop."

SURE, BASEBALL IS PRETTY DEAD around these parts now but on a certain Sunday morning in September, '40, Lafayette Lions "tamed the Oakland Lions," by a 2 to 1 score. It was the superb fielding by the local club that saved the day for they were out-hit 11 to 6 by Oakland.

"Two beautiful double plays, Atkinson to Gohl killed off likely rallies by the visitors." And by way of further explanation... "Another gem of a play was a peg by Mattson to Packard, who trapped Ray of Oakland off third base... Rupp of Lafayette stole second and tallied on a long single by Clem... then Mattson walked and scored on a line drive to right field by Lou to finish the scoring for the day and was Lou excited..."

NOT ONLY LOU but the author of the article got a bit excited writing... "The brand of ball they play would put them (our Lion sluggers that is) right on top of that crucial American League race."

IT WAS A BIG SURPRISE for Mrs. Frank Westfall when she attended the regular bi-monthly meeting of Lafayette Discussion Group in September of 1940.

The group greeted Mrs. Westfall with "Surprise, Happy Birthday," and a huge lighted birthday cake. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. James A. Curry on Moraga Road with refreshments served "at one large table." And as a special gift from members, the guest of honor received a pair of brass andirons... Wonder if they're gleaming before the fire while someone's "backtrackin" through memories...

Children's Theatre Workshop Opens

Raoul Pause, internationally known dancer-choreographer, and director for the past ten years of studios bearing his name in Oakland, announces the opening of a Children's Theatre Workshop at Lafayette Veteran's Memorial building tomorrow morning.

In addition to the Workshop, Pause has opened a School of the Dance in Lafayette with an excellent staff of teachers assisting him in both children and adult classes. Lynda Lorimer, featured dancer in Pause's concert group, teaches ballet in the Lafayette classes.

The classes had been advertised erroneously as opening in Walnut Creek.

Pause has assembled a staff of experienced and competent directors for the comprehensive Theatre Workshop course, which embraces drama, music, and dance and offers experience and basic theater training through actual producing of plays and ballets. Rehearsals and training for the first production — A Christmas Fantasy, tentatively titled "The Other side of Green Hills," will be presented locally and broadcast (in part) over television during the holidays.

Irma Wallenius, Drama Workshop director, has for four years been director of the Junior Theatre group at the Oakland Community Center.

Laurence Oliveira, designer of costumes and sets for Pause's professional shows, will direct and encourage student participation in costuming and building of sets.

$102,411 For Area In Building Permits

Building permits totaling $102,411 were issued in the Lafayette, Orinda and Moraga area for the week ending October 7.

Of the $42,840 total to be expended by property owners in Lafayette, the breakdown reveals the following permits issued: residence and garage, $7,986, Lot 60, Hamlin Road, Lafayette Homelands, owner Edgar Borglin, builder A. Annacero; residence and garage, $11,148, Lot 4, Upper Happy Valley Road, Malley Estate, owner E. C. Ditzen, builder, Carl Hansen; residence and garage, $12,720, Lot 14 Hampton Drive and State Highway, Friendship Farms, owner and builder, Fred Nordhoss; residence and garage, $8,352, Lot 2 Rosedale Avenue, Paradise Acres, owner and builder, K. A. Wise.

MORE PERMITS

A residence building permit was issued owner and builder L. Johnson & Son for Lot 14 Laurel Drive and Elm, price $9,558; permission for a sleeping porch addition, $376; First Street and Brown Avenue, owner R. B. Rice, builder, J. M. Holley.

An o.k. for a $1500 foundation at Mt. Diablo Boulevard opposite Golden Gate Way was given owner Tony Lamos, Dyer and Woolery to be builders; and to owner A. M. Reis for a retail business, $1000, on the north side of Mt. Diablo Boulevard between Thompson and Orchard Roads, builder to be F. & H. White.

IN ORINDA

Of the $40,013 total of permits for Orinda area, as issued up to the end of last week, the following construction was o.k'd: residence and garage, $8500, Lots 3 and 4, Block H, Canyon Drive in Orinda Park Terrace, owner Walter Swedberg and builder, Kleyn-Schoorel of Orinda; residence and garage, $9411, Lot 51, Lost Valley Drive, Lost Valley Estates, owner and builder, Fred T. Wood and builder H. E. Mohr & Sons, Inc.; residence only $7200, Orchard Road and Moraga Way, owner and builder R. Watt; residence and garage, $12,760, Lot 393, La Noria, Hacienda Del Orinda No. 3, owner, L. O'Connell and builder, I. A. Martiansen.

Owner Jack Cooper was also given permission for a $2142 residence addition at his property,

It happened near the Tunnel.

A deer very foolishly attempted to argue the right-of-way with two cars. It was in the early evening, but dark. The car going toward Oakland caught the deer in full flight upon the left front fender, then knocked it into the path of a car coming this way. Total damage was one very much smashed up left front fender and grill of one car, a few scratches on the other, and a very, very dead deer.

The owner of the West-bound car moaned deeply about the damage and cursed the deer roundly. The other guy was busy admiring the slick, fat deer. They started arguing about what they should do with it. They both thought they should have it. Undamaged car really yearned for fresh venison and was putting up quite an argumentative battle. Damaged car was quite fluent, too, but his mind was divided, half of it being on his battered car.

NO TELLING HOW IT WOULD HAVE ENDED. Probably the highway patrol would have arrived in time to do their duty and confiscated the deer. But one of the interested spectators — a smart Contra Costan — played Solomon very successfully.

"Look," he said, "It's all perfectly simple. Undamaged car gets the deer, and is happy. He has a metal shop, so he fixes damaged car, and both are happy. How about it, Guys, wanta shake?"

They did, and everyone was as happy as any lawbreaker. Damaged car drove away whistling, with visions of his nice, new car being restored to its original splendor without cost to him. Undamaged car happily toted the deer away, snug and safe in the rear compartment. And when the cops arrived on the scene they got nothing, for the little drama was completed.

GEORGETTE IRWIN, UPPER HAPPY VALLEY, has bought another horse: it is a two-year-old Saddlebred colt, offspring of the Irwins' Saddlebred mare, Queenie, and the noted stallion Destiny Bay owned by Charlotte Anderson of Pleasanton. Eula Felix, Walnut Creek, was former owner of both these horses.

You can look for a good many Thoroughbred foals to be frisking around this coming Spring at the Joe Hallett place on Mt. Diablo Boulevard. Eighteen Thoroughbred mares are there, now, in foal to his Thoroughbred stallion Fire Bull, five of the mares being personally owned.

Joey, the Saddlebred owned by Cap Sandford for about five years, and who recently was traded for his present riding horse, the pinto, seems to have not forgotten how to go out there in the ring and show 'em how it should be done. He was entered at the Fresno show, by his new owner Mrs. Wright of El Sobrante, and took first in the five gaited class. I understand a thirteen-year-old girl showed him.

Joey was trained in Indiana, as a fine harness horse, then, and won in such classes, and later as a five gaited horse.

Any of you who are planning upon staying up in Sacramento for the convention and blue ribbon horse show next week-end after this, and who haven't already made reservations and also arrangements for any horses that are to be taken, better get on the ball and do some fast work.

As of the 4th, there have been 1,200 horses registered for box stalls, and the hotels are fast running out of available space.

Looks like the horsemen are going to take Sacramento! Well, I'll be seeing you there.

Bells of St. Mary's To Be a Reality

Installation of the carillon in St. Mary's College chapel cupola was started recently by the Schulmerich Electronics Company of Sellersville, Pennsylvania. Scheduled to be completed within a week, the project will not be dedicated until the afternoon of October 30, when college authorities say they have planned official dedicatory ceremonies.

The new bell system will be similar to those which have been installed at the Universities of Washington, Arkansas, Minnesota, Pennsylvania and Kentucky, according to G. J. Schulmerich, president of the electronics company making the installation.

The bells will be played either from the chapel tower or from the chapel keyboard, which will comprise 25 notes from G to C in chromatic scale, in conjunction with the organ.

With automatic playing planned at the traditional Angelus each morning, noon and night, the Westminster strike will be rung each hour also. Music for special occasions is to be played automatically on a modern roll-type player.

Schulmerich said the low G creates a tone equal to that of a 6½-ton bell. The system is made up of bell metal vibrators, which, when struck by hammers, give a sound equal to that of a perfectly-cast bell. Vibrations are passed along to electronic circuits which develop the volume which will be heard from the chapel tower. These tones will be radiated in all directions and the volume can be controlled to make them audible over an area of several miles.

CONSTANCE HANSEN

October is the beginning of the big shrub-planting season. By planting at this time of year you work with "Mother Nature," instead of against her, with less work and worry, and greater chances for success. Berried shrubs come into their own in the fall, so look around to see the kinds you'd most like to add to your planting.

Rather new is the dwarf self-fertile Aucuba japonica, known as the Gold-dust plant in the variegated form. The dwarf variety is fine in redwood tubs, perhaps used in pairs on each side of a shaded doorway, or where a low evergreen is needed on the north side of the house. The berries are borne in large clusters, each berry about half-inch long, and a brilliant patent leather red at maturity, so with the glossy dark green leaves, they are very ornamental for several months of the year.

THE CORREAS, OR AUSTRALIAN FUCHSIAS, with their varied colored bells, come into their own in the winter months, and are pretty against a wall or under a low window. They stand sun or part shade, and survived our frosts of last winter, though a few tips were nipped here and there. Correa Harrisii has coral red tubular flowers, while pulchella has flowers of soft coral pink, and the foliage of both is gray-green in effect. Another species, Correa magnifica or ferruginea, is rather more vigorous in growth than the two above, and has chartreuse flowers. My own particular favorite of them all is the one which was just put on the market this year, Correa speciosa. The foliage is dark green, and the flowers bright reddish orange, like little Japanese lanterns.

Remember when planting shrubs around the house not to put them too close to the building. If your planting space is only three feet wide, set the plants two feet from the house and a foot from the walk, rather than vice versa. Sometimes, if the walk is going to have to come within a foot of the house, due to space limitations, it is better to pave right to the foundation and use plants in tubs, rather than to try to grow things in too restricted an area. Another solution is to leave a narrow strip of soil, and use ivy or other vines, rather than to try to grow shrubs.

AS THE SHRUBBERY AND PERENNIAL BORDERS are trimmed up and cleaned of spent branches, put on a mulch of manure or compost, and spray with an all-purpose fungicide and insecticide spray. Look at the garden with a critical eye, to see which over-grown plants need to be removed or thinned out, and which might be replaced with more choice material, an improved variety, or one that might do more for the garden effect. Instead of nursing along that shrub which seems to be suffering from maladjustment or an incurable disease any longer, take it out and put in something else that will give you some return on the space and water you give it.

You may have a camellia that looks unhappy and keeps dwindling away no matter what you do for it; as a last resort, dig it up and examine the roots. They may still be encased in the original ball of soil, which has so compacted that they can't grow, and you might save it by soaking the old soil off and replacing it with a fresh mixture of leafmold, peat, and sand. Be sure that the camellia is set with the crown at the soil level, or even a little higher, to allow for the settling of the soil after planting. Mulch with pine needles or oak leaves.

October is a good month for lawn-making, either to fill in bare spots in an old one, or to start a new lawn. We are told to use a blended seed mixture, composed of fast and slower-growing varieties, the fast ones acting as a nurse for the more permanent sorts which take longer to get established.

To pep up an already existing lawn, apply 40 pounds of commercial fertilizer per 1000 square feet, and water in well. Wait two or three days after fertilizing before reseeding the bare spots, and after seeding, mulch with screened compost, or well-rotted, weed-free manure. If you have some other ground-cover, such as lippia or dichondra, this same treatment will make it look a hundred percent better, at least that has been my own experience.

DON'T FORGET THE PROJECT to "Say Centennial with Flowers" in 1950, and get a few packets of wild flower seeds, either separate varieties, or the popular mixtures, to try out. I've had more success by starting plants in flats to be set out later, than by broadcasting seed, finding that the few plants that are set out will self-sow much better than if I scattered the seed myself, but things like California poppies just about have to be planted where they are to grow, as they are difficult to transplant.

African Violet Show at Nursery

An African Violet show will be a feature of Orchard Nursery's Open House set for October 22 and 23.

E. H. Thomas of Saranap will be on hand to discuss and show over 40 varieties of these indoor plants.

Fifty years ago, America's favorite house plant of today was a beautiful wild flower growing in the open forests of East Africa. The first white man to discover it was Baron Walter von Saint Paul, who owned extensive plantations there of vanilla and India-rubber trees.

It's from him that the plant gets its proper botanical name of Saintpaulia. But hundreds of thousands of admirers, who have grown it since the Baron, sent the first seed back to England, have called it African Violet.

This show is only one of many features planned for the date. Free consultations by garden experts, including Arthur Navelet, Norvill Gillespie and Ernest Wertheim. Navelet is well known in Bay Area garden circles both for his radio and newspaper work. Gillespie is garden editor of the San Francisco Chronicle and author of the new book, "Pacific Coast Gardening Guide." Wertheim is a well known Bay Area landscape architect. Other features include educational exhibits and colored movies on plant subjects.

$12.50 per Acre Up For Jr. College Sites Offered

So far eight potential sites for Contra Costa Junior College have been offered for sale and are under consideration by the Board of Trustees of the Junior College District.

No action was taken by the board at its meeting on Wednesday on the offers which range in price from $12.50 to $2,000 per acre.

NO DECISION SOON

Sites offered, 22 to 100 acres in size, are in the Walnut Creek, Danville, Pleasant Hill, Pacheco and Cowell areas. The board emphasized that they will continue to receive offers of sites and no decision is contemplated in the immediate future.

The following sites were proposed to the board:

Mrs. Ethelwyn S. Watts, 30 acres adjacent to the Stag Manor School which she operates near Danville, $1500 an acre.

George H. Cockerton, Walnut Creek, four sites: No. 1, Withers Road, off Pleasant Hill Road, 51 acres at $12.50 an acre; No. 2, adjacent to Pacheco Road and south of Contra Costa Golf Club, 50 acres at $2000 an acre; No. 3, in same general area, 57 acres, no price quoted, and No. 4, in same area, 22 acres at $1500 an acre.

Baxter M. Geeting in conjunction with several farmers in Pleasant Hill area, offered part of the old Boss Estate of approximately 100 acres, at $1500 an acre "or possibly less."

Ernest Marchi, Martinez, the Roche Ranch, on Contra Costa Golf Club Road, west of Pacheco Highway, 100 acres at $2000 an acre.

George H. Sr., George H. Jr., and Robert E. Cardinet, 100 acres near Cowell at $600 an acre.

Rotarians Plan to Go Apple Ducking

Besides its weekly luncheon programs, Lafayette Rotary plans include a Halloween party for members, their wives and children, to be given at Legion Hall next Thursday night at 8 p.m.

Tuxedos and evening gowns are not recommended for wear at this affair, as reports indicate apple ducking and other typical Halloween pastimes will be on the program as well as the dancing that has been planned. Mel Nielsen is chairman of arrangements.

"The United States Foreign Policy," from a historical standpoint, was the interesting and timely subject presented by Col. Charles L. Thomas before Lafayette Rotary at the meeting held this week at Planters Dock.

The speaker, a retired army officer, was formerly a lecturer in the history department at University of California and at one time was attached to the Army College in Washington, D.C.

Elwood Hess, principal of Herbert Hoover Junior High School in Oakland, provided an especially interesting program at last week's Rotary session, not only because of the subject matter of his speech which dealt with the problems young people present to educators and the attempts to curb juvenile delinquency by co-operation of the home with the school, but also in the speaker's ability in presentation of his talk.

State Opens Blind Aid Offices in County

District offices for administration of old age security and security for the blind programs are now established at Richmond and Martinez, according to Mrs. Myrtle Williams, director of the State Welfare Department.

The Richmond office will be located temporarily at 4313 Macdonald Avenue, with Bernard Miran, district supervisor, in charge. The eastern section of Contra Costa County is served by the headquarters at 615 Estudillo St., Martinez.

Monthly warrants to aged and blind persons in the county were to be prepared and mailed by the State Controller, beginning October 1, W. G. Golden, regional manager, reported.

PROGRESSIVE CLUB

Twelve members of the Progressive Club and Executive Council of the International Typographical Union Oakland Chapter were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Harris on Oak View Circle last Wednesday. Included in the group were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heinrichs of Oakland. Mr. Heinrichs is president of the chapter.

Ferro Family Go Deer Hunting In the Isolated Wilds of Nevada

The Ferro family had a very successful weekend hunting in Nevada. Those in the party were Bert Ferro, John Ferro, Tony Ferro and his son, Bob, all from Lafayette, and Tom Ferro and his son Don from Oakland.

The four brothers and the two boys stayed at the Damele Cattle Ranch in Eureka County, Nevada, where the nearest neighbor is fifty miles away. It is so inaccessible that the five Damele children go to school at home. A state paid teacher resides with them because there is no school near enough for them to attend.

The Ferros each came home with a deer but they were afraid for a while that they wouldn't. After they had shot and cleaned the deer they were forced to leave them out overnight because they had not brought enough horses to carry them back to the ranch.

It snowed that night and when they finally got back to pick the deer up the next day, the deer were frozen as solid as if they had been in a deep freeze. The Ferros had planned to stay longer but decided they had better get home before they were snowed in.

HALEY'S VACATION

Col. and Mrs. T. E. Haley enjoyed their three weeks vacation with a week at Lake Tahoe and Reno, a few days entertaining house guests and a week at Carmel.

Adv. Adv. Adv.

I'm Frank...

at least that's what the sign says. YOU SEE, Merle Brown, our local Rotary president has been fining me a buck every time I forget to wear my identification badge at meeting. He also fines me a buck each time I forget to take it off after meeting. That boy has been a banker so long all he thinks of is money. And he is especially fond of mine.

Tell you what I'll do. If you see me running around with that dingus on that says "I'm Frank," just tap me on the shoulder and I'll split the buck with you. Keep that flint-hearted Brown of the American Trust out of my jeans anyway.

IMAGINE A GUY named FITCH not knowing who the chubby bald headed Orinda character is. If he had said the guy who owns the Orinda Hardware, the same Merle Brown couldn't have fined him a buck. (NOTE: And if I'd used a little more Fitch I'd only be chubby.)

Say, speaking of the Orinda Hardware, the store with that wonderful, easy to remember number . . . Orinda 2585, why don't you come in and look around? You'll see in a minute why the Telephone Company gave us such a pretty number. It's such a pretty store. And, you know, if you call Orinda 2585 you'll get the most beautiful delivery service in Orinda. Try it!

ALMOST FORGOT to tell you about our wonderful selection of hand-painted "Blue Ridge" dinnerware. This is an open stock and is carried by better stores throughout the country, in the event you ever leave Orinda. Goodness knows why anyone would want to do that.

We have this "Blue Ridge" ware in many patterns and there is a terrific starter set for $9.95. There are 20 pieces in it too. Ask to see it the next time you're in.

Mrs. Armstrong, our saleslady in the houseware section is sure busy these days trying to keep the dust off the glassware, pots and pans. Boy, it'll sure be swell when we can tie in the Bamboo Rendezvous to that dusty project out in front. Do you know the dust on the sidewalk is as thick as the snuff on Uncle Olaf's mustache? It is.

TALKING TO CARR JONES the other day. We were discussing the hot spell and he remarked that his house remained as cool as a cucumber. He did say that it was a bit warm on the roof when he mowed the lawn up there. I gave him a "double-take" (that's Brooklyn for looking twice) then suddenly remembered that Mr. Jones is the only resident in Orinda with a lawn and barbecue on his roof. Now it's your turn for a "double take."

Bob Antonison called the other day to ask about his cat. Thought everyone knew that horses were my specialty. Anyway, Bob had a beautiful white persian. Big fat fellow with light flecks of dark on his fur.

Seems Bob bought a dog, and Mr. Chips, the cat, became miffed, or is it muffed. Anyway he returns every two weeks for a quick check and then it's goodbye Mr. Chips for another couple of weeks. I say let the Chips fall where they may but Bob's a good guy, so if you're feeding Mr. Chips, please call Bob and get his formula. Getting too fat it seems.

That's about it for now as I am not only tired and sleepy—

Pot Luck Dinner Planned at Church

On Wednesday evening at 6:15, a pot luck dinner will be held at the church to be followed by community singing led by Jim Hupp, a business meeting, and a program.

The occasion is also a reception to the past year's new members. During the business meeting the Building Committee and the Trustees will make their recommendations regarding the next building unit.

The program will be featured by a centennial address illustrated

The Fred Goodwins, with daughter and son, have moved back to Orinda and will occupy the Stuart Campbell home on Dias Dorados, while the Campbells are in Arabia.

WEEKEND IN L.A.

Mrs. C. W. Brock, and her small daughter, Betsy, flew to Los Angeles over the weekend. They returned Monday, bringing with them Mrs. Brock's mother, Mrs. Eades, for a week's visit at the Brock's home on La Cuesta. Betsy, who is six weeks old, thoroughly enjoyed her first plane ride.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Donald Krotz and Dan Sheldon left by plane Sunday morning to attend a three-day convention of the Industrial Research Institute at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago.

Here and There in Orinda

CAMPING TRIP

Ritchie Smith, Vic Cranston and Nat Dodge spent 12 days last month on a camping trip in the Marble Mountains country above the Trinity. They packed in four days before the opening of deer season and spent that intervening time lake fishing. They are happy to report their pursuit of the mule tail deer netted them one big four-point buck.

MICHAEL'S BIRTHDAY

Michael Donovan entertained friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Donovan of Woodland Road, Sunday, in honor of his ninth birthday. Invited to join him at lunch and a movie later where his sister, Susan and Tom White, Tim and Edward Maloney, Sonny Roeschene, Dennis and Maureen Donovan, Doug Federighi, Jim Donohue, Lois Allara, Dennis Spitzer, Stephen DeMaria and Bill Klement.

LUNCHEON GIVEN

Mrs. Edgar T. Meakin entertained with a luncheon at the Walnut Creek Art Center last Thursday, Mrs. G. Chester Brown, Mrs. Murray Groves and Mrs. Ralph Sisson. The luncheon was a celebration of the recovery of each from recent illness, operation and a broken bone.

SUPPER PARTY

Val Geisler, son of Major and Mrs. Thomas A. Montague, entertained friends at supper at his home on La Campana Saturday evening in honor of his tenth birthday. The boys completed the evening by going to the movie in Lafayette.

TOMMY'S BIRTHDAY

Tommy Miles, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Miles of La Plaza, celebrated his eighth birthday last week with a party at his home. His guests were Doris and David Sonnie, Joanne and Lolita Boysen, Tommy and Stevie Solinsky, Mibsie and Jeannie Wright, Diane Hull, Michael David, Lynnie and Tommy Ballard, Barbara and Jimmy Gibson, Joe Moore and Nancy Mott.

ENTERTAIN SISTER

Gen. and Mrs. John R. Deane are entertaining Mrs. Deane's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald of Iowa.

AT LUNCHEON

At the recent Bridge and Luncheon of the Heidi Chapter at the Mt. Diablo Country Club, Mrs. A. R. Anderson, Mrs. John Doane, Mrs. Kenneth Brown and Mrs. Whitehouse shared a table.

LEAVE FOR EAST

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Baker left Saturday for a three-week trip to the mid-west and east to attend medical meetings and conventions, and to get in some visiting and sightseeing.

SIXTH BIRTHDAY

TO LIVE IN PASADENA

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Graffis have sold their home at 20 Culver Court and will live in Pasadena. Dick has accepted an executive position with the Joyce shoe manufacturing company in southern California. Orinda will miss Dick's active participation in Lion's Club and civic doings and daughter Patty's presence in Girl Scout activities. New owners of the Graffis home are Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pierce, from Rio Vista, who will be Orinda residents between winter trips to Honolulu and summer sojourns at Tahoe.

CAMPING TRIP

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Morrow, and Lance Barden left Monday for a three day camping and fishing trip in the high Sierras.

ANOTHER SMILING FAMILY GREETs you from the Family Portrait . . . Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Lassagne and sons, Arthur and Theodore. (Portrait by Victorina Willson)

By VICTORINA WILLSON

Today we proudly introduce Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Hawley Lassagne and their sons Theodore and Arthur of Happy Valley.

Mr. Lassagne is a lawyer specializing in patents. He commutes to his office in San Francisco. I was curious about the function of a patent lawyer and was told that it mainly involves the protection of inventions through the early stage to the obtaining of the patent and then enforcing the patent if necessary. He is a member of the Happy Valley Improvement Association and is also one of the exclusive few who is listed in the Who's Who on the Pacific Coast.

The Lassagnes moved to this area December 1944, but it is interesting to note that they moved on land that his father owned B.T.A.O.T. (Before the Advent of the Tunnel). Which accomplishment, Mr. Lassagne declares "is the dividing line between the people who came out here because it was country and the people who came out because it is suburban." A very apt description your reporter thought.

ILLINOIS WEDDING

Mr. Lassagne attended the University of Illinois and finished at George Washington. He is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa. Mrs. Lassagne attended Chicago Normal and the University of Chicago and after coming West entered the University of California in nearby Berkeley. They were married in Illinois and did not come out to California until Mr. Lassagne's father chose Happy Valley as the perfect place to retire.

Mrs. Lassagne belongs to the Happy Valley Improvement Association too and was at one time secretary of the group. She is also a charter member of the Heidi Chapter of the Children's Home Society of California and is a member of the Drama Section of the Glenview Women's Club in Oakland.

THEODORE, known to all his friends as Ted, is a senior at Acalanes. He is an accomplished pianist and accompanies the Boy's Glee Club at School. He is also organist at the Walnut Creek Methodist Church. As we can well judge from the above, music is his real hobby.

ARTHUR is a freshman at Acalanes. His musical interest is centered on playing the accordion with swimming rated as his favorite sport. He is very interested in the Boy Scouts and is going to be a Den Chief this year.

The family's musical trend probably started with father — for he still plays the piano excellently and played in a dance band all through high school and college. Recently, he and Arthur have taken up photography as a hobby and they have their own darkroom.

The Lassagnes find living here very enjoyable. And, we almost forgot to mention, they have two wonderful mongrel dogs and a mongrel cat that manage to get along in a very friendly fashion.

Canyon Callings . . .

BY PHYLLIS RICE

The Canyon Women's Club held its regular monthly meeting Thursday in the school . . . Don't forget to come to the spaghetti dinner and Bazaar the Women's Club is holding on October 22 at 7 p.m. in the hall. Sounds like fun for everybody.

The Eastern Contra Costa County Fire District will hold a dance October 29 in the Hall at Canyon. Come on out and have a good time.

Doc Miller left Friday to go deer hunting — up around Modoc. He had the same kind of luck that some of the other fellows had — NO DEER.

The Boy Scouts meet every Monday night from 7:30 til 9 p.m. in the hall. Speaking of Boy Scouts — Paul Foster and Hank Bierman took nine of the boys on a 14 mile hike Sunday. They tell me its a good trick when you've been to a dance the night before and don't get to bed till the wee small hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Klump, and son Warren, of Stockton, spent the week with Mr. Klump's sister, Mrs. Gladys Shally, and family. . . . Sorry to hear that Mrs. Tom Borden has been sick. Glad to see her up and around now. . . . Mrs. Ida Styles and Mrs. Maud Painter, of Oakland, were visiting Mrs. Sullivan one day last week.

Lee Messick joined the Army and left last week for Fort Ord. . . . Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McCallum and daughter, Sharon, are moving this week end to Alameda. They have rented their home to Mr. and Mrs. John Brady Marks and son. Don't forget to come back out and see us once in a while, Pete and Gertrude. . . . Mrs. Lillie Wilkinson spent Wednesday at Stockton. She conducted a Publicity conference at the 8th District P.T.A. meeting.

Adult School Enrollment Soars

Enrollment in Adult Education classes at Acalaness has passed the 1,000 mark, according to Dave Stewart, director. More persons are expected to register within the next few weeks as new classes are added.

A folk dancing I beginning class under Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ross of Berkeley started on Wednesday in the girl's gym from 8 to 10 p.m. Next Tuesday, 8 to 10 p.m. a photography class tutored by Ed Ross of Walnut Creek, will get underway. The course will cover elementary principles of photography for beginners, dark room work, color and texture.

Another new class, Mechanical Drawing and Blueprint Reading, will start next Wednesday from 7 to 10 p.m. Robert Stevens, high school mechanical drawing instructor, heads the class which meets in room 407. Class enrollment will be limited to twenty-two.

Late registration for the seminar in world affairs conducted by Lipton of the University of California on Monday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30, and Public Speaking, led by Robert Hood on Wednesday from 8:30 to 9:30 are still being accepted.

Mrs. Hallstone Wins Honorable Mention

Mrs. K. C. Hallstone of Victoria Court received honorable mention in a recent contest sponsored by McCall's Magazine for her letter answering the questions, "What have you done to make your backyard more livable for your family? What could you and your neighbors do to make your block a better place to live?"

McCall's contest, which is called, "Yardville, U.S.A.," has had enthusiastic response from all over the United States. It has been incentive for the rejuvenation of many neglected neighborhood "eyesores" into attractive recreation spots for children and adults in various places throughout the country.

Skating Party for Junior Patrol

The State Highway Patrol will sponsor a skating party for 150 boys and girls of the Junior Safety Patrol today at Skateland Roller Rink in Pittsburg through the courtesy of the rink's owners.

Junior patrol boys and girls from schools in Lafayette, Vallejo, Orinda, Alamo, Pleasant Hills, Port Chicago, Port Costa, Diablo Vista and the local Pittsburg schools will enjoy skating acts being arranged for by Officer Flynn, in charge of the party. W. B. Ellis, Superintendent of Lafayette Schools, and Fred Davidson, Lafayette Grammar teacher, are among school officials helping to organize the party.

Contractors to Meet Tuesday

General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County will hold the regular monthly membership dinner meeting at the Ron-De-Voo in Richmond next Tuesday at 7 p.m., Dan C. Peacock, Jr., president of the association announced today.

Peacock stated that films taken at the first Annual Barbecue of the Association, which was held at Marsh Creek Springs Park during September by H. L. Crocker, an El Cerrito builder, will be shown at the meeting. Crocker, who made the first motor trip through Mexico, will also present a movie, "Border to Border," which he filmed during the Mexico trip.

Some like it hot..few like it cold

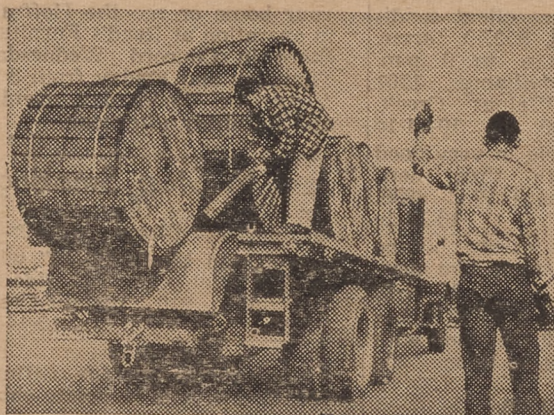

To get cold water when you're expecting it hot is rather provoking, to say the least. As most of the water used in the home must be heated prior to use, there's no reason to let an inadequate water heater upset your daily routine. To have an ample supply of hot water at all times—for dishes, laundry, baths, cleaning and many other everyday uses, install a new fully automatic Gas water heater. It's a great time saver—and thrifty, too.

Let us help you select the correct size automatic gas water heater to fit your needs—or see your plumber or appliance dealer, today.

No need to wait for hot water when you install an automatic gas water heater.

1. Timber . . . paper . . . copper—we have to buy many things to build and run the telephone system. Last year Western Electric, our principal manufacturer and supplier, bought over 20 million dollars worth of materials in the West. More than half of each dollar we take in goes for employees. Most of it is spent and goes into circulation where they work and live.

3. When you add it all up, you find the money you spend for service comes back, in large part, to you. And your telephone dollars are buying more service than ever. Today you can call more of the people you want to call . . . more can call you. And your telephone still does its jobs for only a few pennies a call.

2. More than 80,000 of those whose savings built the business . . . who own telephone stock . . . live in the West. In return for the use of their money, a few pennies of each telephone dollar go to them. And as they spend it, they also add to Western prosperity. It would probably be hard to find anyone who does not in some way benefit from the money we spend.

Acalanes Gridders Ready to Tackle Alhambra Bulldogs Here Tonight

Tonight Acalanes Dons attempt to tame the Alhambra Bulldogs with kickoff time set for 8 p.m. under the lights of Acalanes Memorial Field.

The Bulldogs operate from a double wing and boast of a top passer in Evie Croad.

A WIN REQUIRED

The Dons must definitely get in the win column this week if they are to remain in the pennant race.

Alhambra also has a smashing fullback in a Junior by the name of Jack Bush.

The Dons appear to be at full strength, according to Coach Mattson, provided Dick Laney is ready to go. Dick received a hip pointer in the Tracy game and had to miss the Diablo game. If ready, he will greatly strengthen the flank position as he rates among the top ends in the county.

STARTERS NAMED

Coach Mattson, with his eye on that win column, named probable starters for the Alhambra game.

Orlando Chiavini, and Lawrence Lucas are ready to go at the tackle spots while Jay Forni and George Cockerton are set at guards with Lloyd Torchio doing his stuff at the center spot.

Lee Bates has moved into the right end position due to his steady play. Dick Laney goes at the other end while Larry Feagans or Jack King starts at quarter. It's Jack York and Ken Jones at halves with Pete Larmer at fullback.

VARSITY QUARTERBACK

Arthur E. Johnson, son of Mr. Allan Johnson, 129 Moraga Boulevard, succeeded in becoming varsity quarterback on the Reed College team. Since Reed has no rulings to prevent anyone from playing with the regulars, Arthur's demonstrated ability placed him in the key position. Arthur graduated at Acalanes Union High School, class of '49. He has selected mathematics as his major.

FROM THE SIDELINES

By Coach Erwin Mattson

THE ACALANES DONS and Diablo Red Devils really kept fans players and coaches on their feet a good part of the time in their game last week.

Both elevens played good hard clean ball and either could have won as players were apparently on their way on several occasions only to be cut down by some desperate tackling. Bill Hampton saved the day on one occasion when he brought a Diablo runner down with an all-out one hand tackle.

KEN JONES was out and away on a well executed pass play only to get a leg cramp just as he was pulling away.

Tension was added to the game when starting time found no sideline chains and the managers and coaches in a desperate fifteen minutes hunt. Such waiting can seem to be hours to keyed up players.

THE QUESTION most often asked since the game is "why did the fumbles occur?"

The Dons fumbled nine times and recovered but once. Some said that Diablo's players were tackling the ball. In some that was true and it is a perfectly legal maneuver. On most fumbles, however, the pigskin just simply slipped out.

MY OWN VERSION is that the kids were trying too hard. They were giving their all and in so doing tightened up a bit too much.

After the first fumble they began to think about it too much and in so doing tightened up all the more. The secret of top performance is the ability to relax while going at top speed.

FUMBLES HURT a great deal, to put it mildly. First, they give a lift to the recovering team and a let-down to the fumbling team. They give the opponents a chance to score while depriving the other team of the same chance. On top of that, figuring the loss of a chance to kick plus giving the chance to the other team, a lot of yardage is lost. Conservatively speaking, forty yards and eight fumbles becomes mighty serious business.

Attention is called to the fact that both varsity and junior varsity elevens are undefeated to date. The Jayvees have four wins while the varsity has three wins and a tie.

EDDY GRUEB, young sophomore fullback, has been the spark plug of the junior varsity and is scheduled to see some varsity duty as he reaches his fifteenth birthday last Saturday. He has now reached the age limit for varsity competition.

Eddy has developed fast and possesses the speed and strength to be a real addition to the team. He is a great competitor. As a freshman he starred in track, leaping better than nineteen feet in the broad jump.

AT A RECENT LEAGUE MEETING it was decided to schedule junior varsity football games along with varsity. J. V. teams are to meet on the Thursday prior to the varsity game with the home field reversed from the varsity. Prior to this ruling, not all J. V. teams have met one another and scheduling has always been a problem.

IT'S DIFFICULT TO REALIZE that the high school football season is well past the half way mark and soon the "49" season will be a matter of record. Much of a team's success depends on the enthusiasm and drive they can maintain once the newness of practice has worn off.

Dons Fumble Into Diablo Tie

The six to six score tells the story — With some five thousand fans in attendance at the opening league game, Coach Erwin Mattson's Acalanes Dons and the Diablo Red Devils put on a slam bang battle under the lights of the Concord field. Two heavy lines knocked away at one another in an attempt to hit the elusive end zone with one of their fast backs.

DIABLO SCORES

Diablo's six points came on the final play of the first quarter when they recovered a fumble and fullback Brown scampered around right end for forty five yards. Tommy Kramer was rushed and unable to drop kick the conversion try.

The Dons surged back early in the fourth period to break Jack York through on a quickie up the middle for forty yards and their six points. Ken Jones was inches wide on the conversion.

GOOD START

The Dons seemed to be on their way in the opening period when they drove from their own forty yard mark to the Diablo fifteen only to fumble. All in all the Dons lost the ball eight times via the fumble route that stymied any other scoring threats.

Ken Jones played a bang up game at the left half spot and ran up some good yardage. He also sparkled on defense.

LARMER ON DEFENSE

Pete Larmer as usual was the backbone of the defense as he put on a great display of line backing along with Lloyd Torchio, who backed up the other side of the line.

Jack York came through with a good display of open field running as he cashed in for the only touchdown of the evening for the Dons.

LINE STALWARTS

In the line Jay Forni, George Cockerton, Orlando Chiavini, and Lawrence Lucas proved to be a mountain of strength on both offensive and defensive play.

The Dons held a yardage advantage and made seven first downs to their opponents' four. One of the best plays of many was a booming sixty five yard quickkick by Pete Larmer.

Celebrate Birthdays at Children's Show

"Pittsburg Kid" will be shown by Teatro Para Ninos Saturday at Orinda Grammar School auditorium. Doors will open at 2:00 p.m. There will also be another installment in the "Dick Tracy" serial.

The auditorium was filled to capacity last week. Lollipops were on sale for the children and will be available at each show. Performances will be over each week at 4:00 o'clock, and parents are urged to call for their children at that time as there will be no supervision at the school after 4:10.

Birthdays were celebrated Saturday for several Orinda children. Dickie Stark was six years old. His guests included John Bartlett, Peter Telfer, Mark Gathings, Kirk Long, Jonathan Jensen, Don Phelps, Carl Barden, Barden Wilmar and Stephen Gaylord.

Johnny Reilly's party met at his home for dessert and came on to the show. His guests were his sisters Dorothy and Ann and Jimmy Pedder, Jimmy McCutchan, Bobby Clifford, Scot McFarland, Lorna Wallace, Kip Farrington, Scot Huntley, Robby and Sally Spott, Teddy Howard, Priscilla Devin, Roxine Huntley, Bobby Blue and Holly Borden. This was Johnny's fifth birthday.

Guests included in Gary Bottjer's ninth birthday celebration were his brother, Steven, David Brown, David Hurst, Bob Somers, Ricky Davis, Billy Klement, Warren Smith, Gary Beeman, Henry Moylan and Larry Hunn.

The children also sang Happy Birthday to Susan Paine.

Helpers at the Saturday matinee are still badly needed. Please call Mrs. Jack Moylan, Teatro Para Ninos chairman at Orinda 2532.

Dinner Show Enjoyed At Suzanne's Party

Suzanne Walker, daughter of the Robert H. Walkers, celebrated her ninth birthday Saturday evening with a dinner party at her home at 2 Katrina Court. She and her guests then went on to a show, returning home later for soda pop, cookies and games. Joining with her were Sandra Rundle, Sherry Welch, Penny Marsh, Sheryl Rasmussen, Nancy Long, Barbara Gibbs, Kemmy Anderson, Susan Ray, Gwendolyn Bixton and Judy Henderson.

Mrs. Morrish Gives Tea In Honor of Bryants

Mrs. W. F. Morrish of Glorietta Blvd., entertained with a tea on the afternoon of October 5 in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Bryant. About 60 guests from Orinda and the Bay Area enjoyed meeting these old friends who left Berkeley for Colorado where Dr. Bryant is superintendent of the Grand Canon National Park.

TENTH BIRTHDAY

Carol Ann Ketsdever celebrated her tenth birthday Friday afternoon with an afternoon of games followed by a delicious supper. Her guests enjoying the party were Karen Collings, Virginia Stahle, Nancy Mott, Patty Court-right and Virginia Ketsdever.

Clipper Club Plans Program

The Orinda Clipper, younger married couples club of the Community Church, will meet tonight at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wehmeier of Powell Drive, Lafayette.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Franchi will be guest speakers. The Franchis have recently returned from Hatch End, Middlesex, England, where they were U.S. exchange teachers for a year. During their stay abroad, Mr. and Mrs. Franchi had opportunities to visit some of the western European capitals, make an air trip to Ireland, and a motor trip to North Scotland. Two outstanding events of their busy year were receptions given by Queen Elizabeth and by Ambassador Douglas. Although they found the strict food rationing very difficult in England, the Franchis feel the year was a very interesting and worthwhile one.

Following the program refreshments will be served by chefs Mesdames and Messrs. Fred Twining and George Mulligan.

Heidi von Guenther Celebrates 8th Birthday

Heidi von Guenther celebrated her eighth birthday on Wednesday with a party at Montclair Park by the lake, followed by horseback riding at Miss Graham's Riding Academy.

Girls in Heidi's class who joined with her wearing cowboy outfits were Sandy Miller, Mary McFarland, Roxine Huntley, Karen Peterson, Diane Verducci, Madelyn Sears, Pamela Phillips, Nancy Brumbaugh, Lynn Thompson, Nancy Mott and Sheri Elder.

WITH THE ROUNDER

ODDS AND ENDS AND ORINDANS:

You can't catch trichinosis from playing Canasta. But if Nellie and Al Winsor turn up with a case of same, you can blame it on their enthusiasm for the South American game. So anxious to get started the other evening that the pork spare ribs didn't get cooked completely — and now poor Nellie's looking for symptoms.

From "an authority in a high place" we hear of another complaint about goings on at the Glorietta School. Too darned many posts around — and consequently too darned many dogs.

We've heard vague rumors that the Orinda Better Business Association wasn't doing so well — that most of the members lacked interest and for that reason the last meeting was practically devoid of members. Be that as it may, the truth about the lack of attendance at the meeting in question had nothing to do with disinterest. Clarence "Secretary of Everything" Betz simply forgot to mail notices of the meeting to the members.

AFTER MONTHS OF BICKERING, fumbling and futility, speed limits have been established on the Orinda and Moraga Highways, officially that is by Ordinance 509. Maybe it's becoming a bit monotonous — but we'd still like to know something. Who's gonna enforce it?

WHY THEY SHOULD DO IT to Al Clement we'll never know. Al's a swell guy who does right by a lovely family — probably loves his mother-in-law. But the Dramateurs aged him considerably twice within a couple of hours the other night.

First they made him guinea pig in a demonstration of make-up technique, transforming youthful Al into a decrepit looking individual who could easily have passed for Jack Benny's vault guard. Turned right around and added years to his life by electing him treasurer of the organization — the only masculine member of the executive board.

AND SPEAKING OF THE DRAMATEURS reminds us that another little theater group jumped the gun on them and produced "John Loves Mary" a whole month ahead of them. Really doesn't matter though — the other group was the Pasadena Playhouse players in the south. And maybe it's for the sake of realism or something, since one of the props for the play is a bottle of booze, but in that group picture in the Orinda News last week we counted at least seven empty pinch bottles. Tsk, tsk.

TIP TO THE KNAVE: Bones Remmer and wife are not the only citizens who recognize a good risk when they see it. William Pechart, who almost never plays his own console machines, and his wife are also the proud possessors of a couple of $50 squares on Jack Snow's $5000 "deal." Which of course reminds us that it is our understanding that postal regulations prohibit the mention of lotteries of any kind in mailed matter. Doesn't the Tribune have a mailing list? Or did the editorial department overlook the Knave's little item?

ORINDA IS FAST BECOMING a pretty complete community in so far as its business section is concerned. Will have two hardware stores as of tomorrow morning when Simon's opens in the Village. And Lila Murphy informs us that her new studio will not only echo to the stomp of dancing feet, but will resound with resonant emoting as well. Nina Dene Crawford, well-known instructor from Berkeley, will be there teaching dramatics to the young ones.

And incidentally, speaking of the Knave a few lines back, brings to mind the fact that we have a favor to ask of the gentleman. Not only for ourselves, but for all of Orinda as well. Some time back when our fair community was rapidly going to the hamsters, so to speak, the Knave pitched in and presto — the scourge ended. Of late he's been most generous with helpful advice on how we could rid ourselves of hornets. Sir Knave, how in hell can we get rid of the several billion flies and ants currently plaguing local double-troubled residents?

TIP TO THE MOTHERS of grammar school kids: Have you looked at junior's feet lately? Might be a good idea. Orinda School children have been hit by a plague of athlete's foot of late, and while comparatively easy to curb and control in its early stages, it can become pretty miserable if neglected.

THE JUNIOR LEAGUE, reported here last week as possible sponsors of the Orinda Children's Art League, will not be. The organization which will give Saturday morning art instruction to the more talented local children is going great under its own power — power generated mostly by indefatigable Kay McGuire and Doris Frazer. . . .

Teatro Para Ninos, one of the more commendable projects for the benefit of Orinda youngsters, is back in full swing again with its Saturday matinees. Off to a disappointing start when the film kept breaking, the sponsors more than made up for the unavoidable trouble with free ice cream for the kids — and a free show last week that rated tops with all in attendance.

NOTED THAT former well liked Orindans Hazel and Bill Garrison turned up the other day along with their son in an advertisement that suggested you should spend your fall vacation in Hawaii. It was a good picture. Festooned with leis, they were obviously enjoying themselves. But just to keep the record straight, don't the Garrisons live in Healdsburg now?

That's a cute idea — taking the license number of cars loitering in the vicinity of the East Portal of the tunnel and reporting same to the D.A. as suggested by our supervisor as a means of stopping the garbage dumping thereabouts. But Jack — Who's going to prove whether the guy in the car was pitching refuse out the window — or pitching woo to a lady friend?

The two Teds — Almquist and Beckett, along with Fred Whitaker, will start a new subdivision of twenty-seven homes out near Danville soon. . . .

LAST MINUTE TIP. There are probably a few of our readers who can't afford to bounce $50 for that deal at Casa Orinda. So trot over to Don Thompson's. You won't get as rich — but you can buy the same size square there for $10.
